

5th Tennessee Physiological Society Meeting Friday, November 22, 2013

- 7:30-10:00 Registration outside Beaman A&B on the first floor of the Beaman Student Life Center
- 7:30-8:30 Breakfast in Beaman A&B
- 7:30-8:30 Poster Setup in the West Atrium
- 8:45 Opening Remarks: Nick Ragsdale, TPS President
Associate Professor of Biology, Belmont University
- 9:00-10:00 Keynote lecture: "Biomarkers of Renal Physiology: From Discovery-Based Proteomics to Targeted Assays of Urine Exosome Cargo" Kevin Schey, Ph.D, Professor of Biochemistry, Professor of Ophthalmology and Visual Sciences, Vanderbilt University.
- 10:00 – 10:30 Coffee break
- 10:30 – 12:00 Poster session in the West Atrium- judging for student awards
- 12:10-1:15 Lunch
- 1:30-2:30 Title: "Genetic Modification of Gut Microbiota as a Novel Treatment for Obesity" Sean Davies, Ph.D. Assistant Professor of Pharmacology, Vanderbilt University. Beaman A&B
- 2:30-3:30 Title: "Tamoxifen or letrozole ... Which drug will better treat my breast cancer?" Edgar Diaz Cruz, Ph.D. Assistant Professor in Pharmaceutical Sciences, Belmont University. Beaman A&B
- 3:30-4:30 Faculty/ Postdoc / Student presentations Beaman A&B
- 4:30-5:00 TPS business meeting
- 5:00 Concluding remarks & Student awards and recognitions Nick Ragsdale
- Meeting closes